FARGO.

Elmer Schock and family were attending to business in Rulo this week.

Anton Kern had business in Rulo Friday.

Cass Jones was transacting business in Rulo Thursday.

Some of the farmers have threshed and were indeed surprised to find that their wheat averaged over forty bushels per acre. It is excellent quality and tests from sixty-one to sixty-two pounds to the bushel. Some of them say this year's crop is the best they ever raised.

Mrs. Fred Tiehman received a dispatch from Council Bluffs announcing the serious illness of her sister Mrs. Fanny Johnson. She departed on the first train for Craig, Mo., to her sister's bedside. Miss Carrie Buckminster went up Sunday July 1st and does not know when she will be able to return to her post office duties here.

Griff Wright was transacting business in Craig, Mo., the last of this week.

Mark Durfee celebrated in Rulo the Fourth.

Miss Agnes Schroeder of Rulo has been engaged to teach the school in the Fischer District the coming year. The school board can congratulate themselves on being so fortunate as to secure her service.

D. J. Thomas and daughter of Winnebago district spent the Fourth in Rulo.

J. H. Brinegar and sister Mima were visiting in Craig, Mo., Wednesday of last week.

F. E. Nitzsche and family spent the Fourth at Rulo.

Grover Doughty and Arba Duncan were among the people of Winnebago who celebrated in Rulo.

A. K. Swain and family, Mrs. Gertie Kloepfel and sister, Miss Ellen Close were at the home of Lefe Fouts near Falls City July 4th enjoying a family reunion in honor of Grand Father Fouts. There were twenty-eight children and grandchildren present. A very pleasant time was enjoyed. They all however were sorry that Mrs. L. M. Jones could not be present as she is one of his daughters also.

John Kloepfel and wife of Falls City spent part of the week visiting relatives here.

Louis Swenforth claims to have some corn tasseled and silked out besides sixty acres more that is higher than a man's head.

The people here had a good time part of the day celebrating the Fourth. A very social crowd gathered. The program was short. Everything passed off smoothly and peacefully until along in the afternoon when an old grudge got the better of two of those present, a fight ensued in which one got a badly peeled face. Revolvers came to light it is claimed, and women shrieked and fled from the scene. Many went to their homes where peace and good will reign.

The celebration at Fort Hazel was of the patriotic and good citizenship order. About one-hundred people gathered to enjoy a social Fourth among their neighbors and friends. A short program was rendered and a few speakers were present to talk on beneficial subjects. Mr. Lichty talked on Sunday School work and it is claimed that it was excellent. Considerable material was left from the celebration and the managers decided to have a box supper Saturday evening. A large crowd gathered and spent a very pleasant evening.

Stung By Bees.

The following clipping was taken from the Johnson News. Joe Young and wife were badly stung while living a swarm of bees last Sunday. In the neighborhood of one hundred stingers were taken from each of their faces and heads. Owing to the hot weather and the number of stings, their case was considered critical and some fears of Mrs. Young's recovery was expressed, but a physician was summoned and they soon recovered.

Was She Right.

She was a bright girl and they were at a baseball game. She had won his enthusiastic heart by understanding the game right off, and he loved her even more than if she had been his sister. "It reminds me of the household," he says, "the plate, the batter, the fowls and the flies." "And it reminds me of marriage," she added: "First the diamond, where they are engaged; then the struggle and the hits, when the men go out and finally the difficulty in getting home." Then he sat and thought and thought.

No False Claims.

The proprietors of Foley's Honey and Tar do not advertise this as a "sure cure for consumption." You Will Prosper in the Great Southwest

In Oklahoma, Indian Territory and Texas are vast areas of unimproved land—land not now yielding the crops of which it is capable. The same conditions apply to the towns. Few lines of business are adequately represented. There are openings of all sorts—for mills and factories, for small stores, for banks, newspaper and lumber yards. You have only to get on the ground to prove this. To enable you to do so the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway offer

The Great Paper of the Great West The Kansas City Star

Everywhere recognized as the strongest and most reliable newspaper in the most prosperous region of the United States.

Wherein It Leads.

Its Unexcelled News Service embraces the continuous report of the Associated Press, with dispatches every hour; the general and special service of the New York Herald; the Hearst transcontinental leased wire service and special correspondence from THE STAR'S own representatives in Washington, D. C.; Jefferson City, Mo.; Topeka, Kas., and Guthrie, Ok., in addition to the large girth of news that comes daily from several hundred other alert representatives.

Its Market Reports and Comments have an authoritative value that causes them to be telegraphed to all parts of the United States the moment THE STAR comes from the press. No western man even indirectly interested in the value of food products, stocks and securities can afford to be without THE STAR'S daily record of prices and conditions.

Its Special Features include The Chaperon's column, in which are answered questions pertaining to beauty aids and social customs and affairs, a department for inquirers on other subjects and a wide range of miscellaneous articles throwing side lights upon the world's most interesting people and events—these in addition to a vigorous editorial page, absolutely independent politically, and a Sunday issue that is full of live special matter and human interest.

13 Papers Each week for 10 cents

The Kansas City Star was the first—and is still the only newspaper to deliver a complete morning paper, THE KANSAS CITY TIMES, to its subscribers without increase in the subscription price.
